The Data Controller reserves the right to involve additional data processors in the data processing in the future, of which it shall inform the Users by amending this Notice.

7. USER'S RIGHTS

Access to personal data

Adatkezelő az adminisztratív költségeken alapuló, észszerű mértékű díjat számíthat fel.

At the user's request, the Data Controller shall provide information as to whether the Data Controller processes personal data concerning the user and, if so, shall grant the user access to the personal data and inform the user of the following information:

- the purpose(s) of the data processing;
- the categories of personal data concerned by the data processing;
- in the event of the transfer of the user's personal data, the legal basis for the data transfer and the recipient(s) thereof;
- the planned duration of the data processing;

- the user's rights in relation to the rectification, erasure and restriction of processing of personal data, as well as the right to object to the processing of personal data;
- the possibility of contacting the Authority;
- the name and address of the data processors and their activities related to the data processing.

The User may submit their request for access using the contact details specified in Section 1. The Data Controller is obliged to provide the information requested by the user in an intelligible form, without undue delay and in any event within one month of receipt of the request. The Data Controller shall provide the User with a copy of the personal data undergoing processing free of charge. For any further copies requested by the User, the Data Controller may charge a reasonable fee based on administrative costs.

Rectification of processed data

The User may request the Data Controller, using the contact details specified in Section 1, to rectify inaccurate personal data concerning the User or to complete incomplete data, taking into account the purpose of the data processing.

Erasure of processed data (right to be forgotten), blocking

The User may request that the Data Controller erase personal data concerning the User without undue delay, and the Data Controller shall be obliged to erase personal data concerning the data subject without undue delay where one of the following grounds applies:

- a) the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- b) the User withdraws their consent and there is no other legal basis for the processing;
- c) the User objects to the processing of their personal data;
- d) the personal data have been unlawfully processed;
- e) the personal data must be erased for compliance with a legal obligation under Union or Member State law applicable to the Data Controller.

The personal data shall not be erased where the processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation under Union or Member State law applicable to the Data Controller.

Restriction of processed data

The User shall have the right to request that the Data Controller restrict the processing of personal data instead of rectifying or erasing such data, where one of the following applies:

- the User contests the accuracy of the personal data, in which case the restriction shall apply for a period enabling the Data Controller to verify the accuracy of the personal data;
 - the processing is unlawful and the User opposes the erasure of the data and requests the restriction of their use instead;
 - the Data Controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of processing, but the User requires them for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- or

- the User has objected to the processing, in which case the restriction shall apply for the period until it is established whether the legitimate grounds of the Data Controller override the legitimate grounds of the data subject.

The Data Controller shall inform the User, at whose request the processing has been restricted, in advance of the lifting of the restriction of processing.

Notification obligation related to the rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing

The Data Controller shall inform each recipient to whom the personal data have been disclosed of any rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing, unless this proves impossible or involves disproportionate effort. At the User's request, the Data Controller shall inform the User of such recipients.

Right to object

The User may object to the processing of their personal data where the processing:

- is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Data Controller;
- is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the Data Controller or by a third party;
- is based on profiling.

If the User objects, the Data Controller may no longer process the personal data, unless the Data Controller demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the User, or which are related to the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

The Data Controller shall inform the User without undue delay, and in any event within one month of receipt of the request, of the measures taken in response to a request for access, rectification, erasure, restriction, objection or data portability. Where necessary, taking into account the complexity and number of requests, this period may be extended by a further two months. The Data Controller shall inform the User of any such extension within one month of receipt of the request, stating the reasons for the delay. Where the User has submitted the request by electronic means, the information shall, where possible, be provided by electronic means, unless the data subject requests otherwise.

8. DATA SECURITY

The Data Controller undertakes to ensure the security of the data, to take the technical and organisational measures, and to establish the procedural rules necessary to ensure that the data collected, stored and processed are protected, and to prevent their destruction, unauthorised use and unauthorised alteration. The Data Controller shall call upon all third parties to whom the data are transferred or disclosed on the basis of the users' consent to comply with data security requirements.

The Data Controller shall ensure that unauthorised persons cannot access, disclose, transfer, modify or delete the processed data. The processed data may be accessed exclusively by the Data Controller, its employees and the Data Processor engaged by it; the Data Controller shall not disclose such data to any third party who is not authorised to access the data.

The Data Controller shall make every effort to ensure that the data are not accidentally damaged or destroyed. The Data Controller shall impose the above undertaking on its employees participating in the data processing activities.

The User acknowledges and accepts that, when providing personal data on the Website, despite the fact that the Data Controller uses modern security tools to prevent unauthorised access to or interception of the data, the protection of data on the Internet cannot be fully guaranteed. In the event of unauthorised access or data acquisition despite our efforts, the Data Controller shall not be liable for such data acquisition or unauthorised access, or for any damage suffered by the User as a result thereof. In addition, the User may also provide their personal data to third parties, who may use such data for unlawful purposes or in an unlawful manner.

The Data Controller shall not collect special categories of personal data under any circumstances.

9. HANDLING AND NOTIFICATION OF DATA PROTECTION INCIDENTS

A data protection incident means any event which, in connection with personal data processed, transferred, stored or otherwise handled by the Data Controller, results in the unlawful processing or handling of personal data, including in particular unauthorised or accidental access, alteration, disclosure, erasure, loss or destruction, as well as accidental destruction or damage.

The Data Controller shall notify the NAIH of the data protection incident without undue delay and, where feasible, no later than 72 hours after having become aware of the data protection incident, unless the Data Controller is able to demonstrate that the data protection incident is unlikely to result in a risk to the rights and freedoms of natural persons.

The Data Controller shall keep a record of data protection incidents for the purpose of monitoring the measures taken in relation to such incidents and informing the data subjects. The Data Controller shall retain the data included in the record for 5 years from the detection of the data protection incident.

10. LEGAL REMEDIES

The Data Controller shall make every effort to ensure that personal data are processed in accordance with the applicable laws. However, if the User believes that this requirement has not been met, the User may contact the Data Controller by writing to adatvedelem@waberers.com or to the postal address at 351 Nagykőrösi út, 1239 Budapest, Hungary.

If the User believes that their right to the protection of personal data has been violated, the User may seek legal remedy before the competent bodies in accordance with the applicable laws:

- the Hungarian National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (address: 9-11 Falk Miksa utca, 1055 Budapest, Hungary; ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu; www.naih.hu)
- the court.

11. OTHER PROVISIONS

This Notice shall be governed by Hungarian law, in particular the provisions of Act CXII of 2011 on Informational Self-Determination and Freedom of Information, as well as Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (GDPR).
